

Why Ruto Must Go

Mr William Ruto has told Kenyans to stop complaining about lack of jobs, because he has 'negotiated' thousands of jobs for Kenyans in Saudi Arabia, working as maids & watchmen.

But Kenyans want good jobs in Kenya, just like Ruto's children who have well-paying government jobs.

Within 24 hours after Ruto incorporated the opposition in his 'broad-based government':

1. Budget cut to office of First Lady - REVERSED;
2. Budget cut to office of Spouse to DP - REVERSED;
3. Promise not to arrest peaceful demonstrators - REVERSED (Kenyans holding portraits of peaceful protesters killed by police in past 6 weeks - including a mother holding photo of her slain son - were arrested yesterday.
4. Local media has been BANNED from reporting LIVE about any anti-govt protests (Totally illegal order)...

Kenyan Patriots Must Change Tactics, Taking into Consideration the Changed Political Equation

Mr Ruto has invited the largest opposition party to 'taste the national cake'.

It is a quid pro quo situation, whereby the new 'opposition' cabinet members help Ruto, by making people in their home counties love him, or at least appear to love him, for the cameras.

This means that, going forward, it would not be possible for patriots to hold peaceful demos in certain towns, without being attacked by goons hired by Ruto's new friends from the opposition.

OPTICS: Ruto's team wants Kenyans to believe that he has suddenly become very popular countrywide, after creating his 'broad-based govt' - hence reason he has started travelling to regions where new cabinet secretaries come from, with cameras showing (paid) crowds cheering him.

Every reasonable Kenyan knows that not more than 50K people could have started liking Ruto and his corrupt regime, because he has nominated a person from their home region as CS.

However, if Liberate Kenya Movement does not counter Ruto's OPTICS, a lot of Kenyans will lose hope that the country can be liberated from the crooks in power - That is what Ruto's team is aiming at.

NOTE: It is very important for Kenyans who understand why the country cannot be saved, without toppling the regime first, to explain to those who may not be aware about what is going on.

Example: A person may be suffering because he cannot afford medical care, college fees etc.

Let them know that, there are hundreds of 'pastors' who are paid sh200,000 per month, just to go to State House once per week, to 'pray for the country'.

Let them know about State House 'renovation budget', that has shot up by 1,000% in 2 years...

Therefore, Kenya has money - but it is not being spent in a way that benefits the average citizen.

That is why patriots are protesting - peacefully.

ACTION ALERT !!

RUTO MUST GO !!

Cabinet Secretaries, CSs, from Conquered Opposition

An example of why Ruto's continued stay at State House is totally untenable.

Hassan Ali Joho - CS for mining.

Joho ticks all boxes regarding the kind of politician Ruto loves – Bogus papers; corrupt; unexplained wealth; tax evader...

Degree certificate – FAKE;

ID – FAKE;

Birth certificate – FAKE...

Joho believes Mombasa is a state within a state, complete with its 'king', The Sultan - Joho himself.

Ruto needs him, because Joho - or whatever his real name is - can provide him with a big crowd, composed of hired goons & supporters (real + bought).

PROBLEM: Crooks never build a country - they milk it dry.

It is peaceful, law-abiding citizens who suffer the most, when crooks get political power.

Olusegun Obasanjo

Every time Kenyans push Ruto's regime so hard that it appears just about to fall, powerful non-African entities send Olusegun Obasanjo to pressure the opposition to 'give Ruto another chance'.

In the latest case, where Ruto's regime was under extreme pressure, not from opposition parties, but from ordinary Kenyans, the powerful Western actors once again sent Obasanjo to Kenya - to convince a section of the opposition to sabotage patriots/Gen-Z Movement, that was just about to topple Ruto's corrupt, rotten regime.

They do this because they love Ruto, as long he remains their puppet.

This means that they hate Kenyans intensely, since local head of state being a puppet of foreign powers is against Kenya interests.

If indeed they cared about Africans, they would be funding Obasanjo to help stabilise Sudan, DRC or other African countries that are more politically unstable than Kenya.

Furthermore, Nigeria is more politically unstable than Kenya - Why doesn't Obasanjo help stabilise his own country first?

If Mr Obasanjo is spotted anywhere in Kenya, his location should be spread on social media, so Kenyans can send him polite greetings.

Ruto & Allies Mocking Kenyans

Mr Ruto has been at the Coast for several days now, beating his chest and threatening Kenyans - in front of hundreds of peasants, paid to cheer his every lie.

In Mombasa, a hired crowd was left fighting among themselves, after someone allegedly run-off with the money meant to pay them, after cheering Ruto.

Yesterday in Nakuru, the chairman of the Finance and National Planning Committee in parliament, used taxpayers money to hire all motorcycle/boda-boda riders in the town, to accompany him during his 'homecoming'.

They are now openly mocking Kenyans.

They falsely believe they have 'defeated protesting Kenyans'.

Ruto and his allies are back to their old ways, of wasting taxpayers money on stupid ego-trips.

The regime claims it doesn't have money, and has made huge cuts to health & education budgets.

But they have money to waste on Ruto moving around the country, 'launching' same projects multiple times.

They have money to waste on extravagant 'home-coming' ceremonies...

what is the relationship between William Ruto and Muteshi?

Grok ✨ 📧 @grok

Based on the information provided, the relationship between William Ruto and Adrian Muteshi was marked by a legal dispute over land ownership. Muteshi accused Ruto of illegally occupying his 100-acre farm in Uasin Gishu County, which he had been farming until he was forced to flee due to the 2007-2008 post-election violence. The dispute ended with the court ruling in Muteshi's favor, ordering Ruto to vacate the farm and compensate Muteshi with Sh5 million for illegally occupying his land. Ruto later withdrew his appeal against the compensation ruling.

Movement 'Must Have Leaders'/'Create Political Party'

Any person who says that the Leader-less, Tribe-less, Party-less Kenya Liberation Movement needs to have a leader or leaders, must either be:

(a) Working for Ruto's regime, or

(b) Very foolish.

'Coincidentally', Ruto and his supporters also insist 'Patriots/Gen-Z Movement should have leaders we can talk to, or a political party we can negotiate with...'

If the Movement had a leader, he/she would have been bought by the Ruling Thieves a long time ago.

And if that was not possible, the person would have been killed.

Same case with a political party.

A political party must have officials.

They will either be bought, or killed.

We are dealing with very dangerous, callous, diabolical people.

Ruto was charged at the International Criminal Court, ICC, for committing crimes against humanity.

The case was dismissed after all witnesses disappeared - Some were later found dead; Many others, their families have never found their bodies.

Ruto's close business associate 'JJ', tweeted - and that tweet is still online on #X app - that his life was in danger, since Ruto was looking for hitmen to kill him.

A few weeks later, 'JJ' was shot dead.

That is the kind of person Ruto is.

#NaneNane: The Final Push on 8th August 2024 – Total Kenya Shutdown

Nane Nane must result in Ruto and his whole corrupt regime falling.

All Kenyans who are tired of paying taxes, without getting any services in return, must now say Enough is Enough.

All patriots should keep themselves abreast of plans regarding 8th August 2024 maandamano - Important info is being shared on social media.

There are many big social media accounts by Kenyans - with more than 100K followers - supporting this final push towards Kenya liberation.

Find these accounts, and follow them.

What to expect on 08-08-2024: If all goes well, then, at a minimum, in early morning, Mr Ruto will be evacuated by his security detail, and taken to a secret location - Never to return to State House.
